All competitors must have their AIRC membership card with them at all times.
You must present it when asked by any official.

Competitors attending the AIRC National Hunter Trials Championships should note the following information:

Show Office

The Show Office will be open from 09:00 until 17:00. We would ask you to only call to the office in person if necessary.

For general enquires while onsite, please email info@airc.ie or you can message, SMS or call 086 2499194 during the above hours only. Please email info@airc.ie outside of these hours and your query will be responded to during working hours.

Entries & Withdrawals

Please email any withdrawals to info@airc.ie and include your competitor number, name, club, horses name and the class you are withdrawing from.

Any change of horse must be notified to the show office and any changes must be registered in advance of competing. Failure to do so is in breach of AIRC rules and will result in disqualification.

Competitor Times

All competitors have been issued with an approximate start time of each class for guidance purposes. Competitors should be ready to jump before their approximate time in case the competition runs early. Please check with the call-up steward on the day.

You must jump in sequence so if you do not turn up in sequence, we will not be able to accommodate you later so please turn up on time!

You do not need to check in on the day of the event. Please proceed straight to the warm-up arena where the pocket steward will have your details.

All competitors must co-operate fully with the stewards with regard to presenting themselves in time for their respective competitions.

Competitor Number

Competitors must print their own number for their Number Bib, using the template provided. Please remember that you must print two copies of your number, one for the front and one for the back of your number bib.

Equine Passports

All horses must be accompanied by an Equine Passport. Spot checks will be carried out and those found without an equine passport will be liable to a fine up to a maximum of €1,000 and / or disqualification from the competitions entered.

Equine Influenza

All horses must be vaccinated against equine influenza, and must have an up-to-date certificate of vaccination as per rule 21. Vaccination certificates must accompany all horses.

Show Updates & Results

Information updates including class start times, results, etc will also be posted throughout the day of the show on Facebook, Instagram and AIRC WhatsApp channel.

Results will be available on the day of the show on <https://airc.ie/airc-nhtc-2026/>

Any queries that you may have, must be submitted to the show office on the day of the competition.

No queries will be entertained after 30 minutes of the result being declared for the competition.

Prize-givings

Presentations will take place at the end of each class at the time posted on the results sheet. Any uncollected prizes can be collected from the Show Office thereafter. Please ensure to collect your prize or rosette(s) before going home.

We would ask the winners of each class to attend in riding attire so a photograph can be taken when collecting their prize.

You must present your membership card in order to collect your rosette or prize.

Rules & Tack

It is the competitors responsibility to know the rules and they must ensure that they are wearing legal tack for their competition. Failure to do so can result in disqualification.

Competitors are reminded that timing devices are banned for RC 80 and RC 90 competitions including the open pairs competitions.

Other Information

- Hat tagging will be available on-site, please contact the number above upon arrival or drop into the Show Office. Hates must be tagged.
- There will be no farrier service available at this event.
- Onsite catering will be available.
- Competitors riding a stallion must wear a red sash.
